The sleep trial studied 42 adults over six weeks.

The trial found that mean nightly sleep duration increased by 38 minutes. No funding amount was reported.